Queen's Expectations

- If chosen to be Miss, Junior, or Little Miss Mundelein, you must agree to represent Mundelein with the utmost dignity and grace. This will include attendance at the Lake County Community Pageants, rehearsals, interviews, photo sessions, and any/all other functions associated with the Lake County Community Pageants.
- Unless prior approval has been granted by the Pageant Director and the Mundelein Community Days Commission, you must agree not to enter any other pageants while fulfilling your current Village Queen responsibilities, except for the Lake County Community Pageant.
- You must agree to refer all appearance requests to the Mundelein Pageant Director for approval and then abide by the decision, should your request not be approved.
- Should you no longer reside in Mundelein, enter another pageant, or in any other way become ineligible, you must relinquish your title, crown, and prizes to the next eligible runner up. The Mundelein Pageant Committee will administer this provision with the utmost integrity and sensitivity.
- You must agree not to engage in drinking alcohol, drug use or smoking of any kind while holding your title. Note: If you should turn 21 while holding the title, you still may not engage in drinking alcohol while representing Mundelein and wearing your crown & sash. If you are attending an event on your own time (in other words not representing Mundelein at a planned event) be aware that you are still being viewed as the current Miss Mundelein and as such your conduct will be scrutinized. If the Pageant Director is made aware that you were seen behaving in a manner deemed inappropriate for a Queen, she may choose to have you relinquish your title.
- All newly crowned Queens must inform the Pageant Director of their Myspace.com, Facebook.com or any other social networking accounts on the Internet. You must also agree to grant permission to the Pageant Director to all of your social networking accounts on the Internet. Any pictures posted on the Internet must be done in a tasteful and appropriate manner, which includes, but is not limited to, pictures depicting you with alcohol, drugs, or smoking of any kind. Any distasteful or inappropriate content may result in the Pageant Director's decision to have you relinquish your title.
- Any emailing or texting which is deemed threatening or bullying in nature will not be permitted during your reign and any such occurrences brought to the attention of the Pageant Director may result in her decision to have you relinquish your title.
- You must never chew gum while you are representing the Village of Mundelein and wearing your crown & sash.
- You must never wear jeans while you are representing the Village of Mundelein and wearing your crown & sash. (Note: ONLY the Pageant Director is allowed to make an exception to this.)
- You are expected to conduct yourself in a lady-like manner at all times. You are representing your village and are expected to act as a Queen.
- Visiting Royalty sections at other pageants are reserved for current and former Queens only. Parents, boyfriends, friends, etc., should not sit in these areas.
- You are responsible for obtaining prizes for your successors. In addition, you will be required to assist with the preparation process for the following year's pageant as delegated by the Pageant Director and Assistant Pageant Director. Queen's mothers are also responsible for assisting with the following year's pageants.

- Commitments to appearances MUST BE HONORED. You will receive an event schedule and description sheet each month. You must complete the form indicating what events you will be able to attend and return to the Pageant Director in a timely manner. It is the expectation of the Mundelein Pageant Committee that you will attend every event. If for some reason you cannot attend an event you have previously committed to, you must communicate this to the Pageant Director no later than one week prior to the event so that the 1st runner up can be contacted to attend in your absence, if necessary. If you are sick, please contact the Pageant Director as soon as possible to arrange for a replacement.
- It is important that you write Thank You notes to EVERY business that has supported your pageant. These businesses are always impressed by something as simple as a Thank You note. Please remember that you will be continually sending notes throughout your entire reign. Pre-printed note cards with your name and title are beneficial.
- When your pageant year is over and you have crowned a new Queen, you will ONLY be allowed to wear your sash to events. Only the current reigning Queen is allowed to wear her crown to events. Whenever you wear your sash, remember that you are still representing the Village of Mundelein and therefore must act accordingly.

I have read and understand all the Queen Expectations and hereby swear that I will abide by these Expectations, if selected Queen. I further understand that if selected Queen and I am unable to uphold the Queen's Expectations, Rules and Regulations set by the Pageant Director, I will be asked to relinquish my crown and all other winnings to the 1st Runner Up in my age group.
